

Twin (Hector) Cribbett

Goods taken by train.

And then everything they made up the prison, like wheelbarrows and handcarts and mailbags and coal bags and lots of other things they used to make up there, everything had to come out and be sent away by rail then.